Dear Parent

Psychology Trip to London for Philip Allan Psychology Student Interest Day – 16 November 2010

Pupils studying Psychology and or PE are invited to join us on a day trip to London on Tuesday 16 November, 2010 to attend the Philip Allan Psychology Student Interest Day. The programme for this event includes the following talks presented by a range of prominent psychologists including Tanya Byron, Sergio della Sala, Mike Cardwell, Cara Flanagan and Andrew Newton, textbook authors and senior examiners

The lectures should complement and enhance our studies at AS, A2 and IB very well and challenge pupils to think about some areas that extend their knowledge beyond the confines of the curriculum.

We will leave PGS at 8.15 am and travel by coach to London, direct to our venue, Friends House, Euston, NW1 2BJ, arriving in time to register at 10.45am. The course ends at 4.30 pm and we will then travel back to PGS, with an ETA of approximately 7.00 pm. We will not be able to do any ‘drop offs on the way. The cost of this trip including the entry fee to the conference and the coach travel to and from London will be £26.00.

There are a limited number of places on this trip and they will allocated on a first come first served basis when you hand in cash or cheque payment and a signed permission slip to Miss Wood along with your consent forms. Cheques should be made payable to Portsmouth Grammar School. The closing date for payment, permission slips and consent forms is half term, Friday 15 October.

Pupils will need to bring a packed lunch, paper and pens for note-taking. Pupils do not have to wear uniform so long as their clothing is appropriate for a professional, working day; (i.e. no skirts more than 2” above the knee and no low cut tops)

If you have any questions or queries with regard to the above visit please contact me a.wood@pgs.org.uk

With kind regards

Miss A J Wood
