

Guest Speaker: Ed Richards

Ed Richards, OP, was at the forefront of much of PGS school life. He was an outstanding sportsman, Chairman of the Sixth Form Council, a highly effective prefect, a ferocious debater and founder and bass guitarist of the School Rock Band.

In a varied and high profile career, Ed has been advisor to two prime ministers, has worked on programmes for Channel 4 and been Controller of Corporate Strategy at the BBC. In October 2006 he was appointed Chief Executive Officer of Ofcom, the independent regulator and competition authority for the communication industries in the United Kingdom. He returns to PGS at the invitation of the Old Portmuthian Club to talk to OPs, parents, staff and pupils about his experiences.
