Dear Parents,

This week the children have been busy with preparations for Grandparents Concerts and The Easter Parade. On Wednesday a really happy morning was spent at Blue Reef Aquarium – I am sure you have heard all about it already! The children have also been enjoying a very happy time outdoors in the wonderful spring weather.

Next week, the focus is 'Easter'. Activities will include egg and spoon races, making Easter cards, using shiny materials to make a large 'egg' collage, and finding out how items of different shapes roll down a slope! The imaginative room is being changed into a 'hair dressing salon'! The sound of the week is 'L' and so the children will be using lentils to make patterns. Don't forget the Easter Parade and songs on Tuesday at 9.30 a.m. – we are practising hard!

Under threes The new 'Key person' list is on the notice board and includes all of the children. You should already have received a letter if your child's 'key person' has changed.

Kidroam Farm

The children have been invited to visit St Jude's Nursery to see some farm animals. This outing can only be for children who usually attend on Wednesday 31st March. Two groups will walk to St Judes Nursery, the first for 10.00 a.m. and the second for 2.00 p.m. Please let me know as soon as possible if you are able to help with this walk. Thank you.

PLEASE LET MRS HEYES KNOW AS SOON AS POSSIBLE IF YOU ARE NOT ATTENDING NURSERY DURING THE WEEK COMMENING 30TH MARCH – AS I MUST GIVE DETAILS OF NUMBERS TO ST JUDES NURSERY THIS WEEK!

Scooters

We are pleased to see so many children walking/scooting to Nursery. However, please would you make sure that children DO NOT ride the scooters inside the school grounds.

Reminder. Please help me by allowing your children to bring only items for the interest tables into nursery. Many children are bringing toys at the moment, please make every effort to leave these at home – the exception must be if it is your child's birthday or they have been on a very special trip.

Spare socks The nursery is very short of spare socks for use when changing children after 'accidents'. If you have any spare – please donate then to us. Thank you very much.
