To: Parents of Pupils in Years 7 & 8

Dear Parents

I have a few vacancies in the above years for anyone who would like to start Speech & Drama lessons.

These lessons are not only fun, but a very good way to enhance pupils' self confidence, stop the dreaded mumbles and, if you wish, allow the children to participate in the highly respected London Academy of Music & Dramatic Art examinations which take place in School once or twice each year. All types of group drama examinations are available, and in the Middle School there is normally a performance for parents during the summer term.

Fees remain at £60 per term (there is an additional £10 late payment fee for any payments made after the first day of a school term), and one terms notice applies.

Pupils will be required to seek permission from individual teachers to attend using their Yellow book.

If you wish to enrol your son/daughter, please will you complete and return the slip below to me. I am also available via school email s.hague@pgs.org.uk

I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely

Susy Hague
